REFUGEE LAW¹

/Procedure implementing manual for lawyers providing legal aid to protection seeking aliens with refusal during the Judicial Decision Procedure/

Shteryo Nozharov, Ph.D.²

Abstract: This handbook is a separate publication, mainly directed to the official lawyers providing legal aid and registered with the National Legal Aid Bureau, representing asylum seekers with a refusal in the course of proceedings on various aspects of refugee law, in compliance with the effective protection of human rights which Republic of Bulgaria guarantees to all citizens and foreigners in need of protection. It is structured in three sections. The first section presents an overview of key academic concepts, themes and legal sources of refugee law. The second section analyzes the procedures and criteria for determining refugee status. The third section includes an analysis of the procedural steps to protect applicants seeking international protection in case of refusal to grant refugee status or humanitarian status, and analysis of the rules governing proceedings in cases at the Court of Justice and the European Community action law.
